After school, Jim served in the US Army. Upon his return, he first worked for the Schuyler County Highway Department. He retired from Central Asphalt where he worked as a mechanic for 44 years. He never really considered himself retired, as he always enjoyed helping neighbors with their mowing and working on their equipment.

Obituary

MICHAEL J MARGRENO, a cherished resident of Watkins Glen, NY, passed away on April 13, 2025 at the age of 67 after a long illness. At the time of his passing he had the love and support of his family at his side.

Born on May 22, 1957 in Montour Falls, NY Michael was the son of the late John and Jeanette (Gaylord) Margreno. He graduated from Watkins Glen High School with the class of 1975. He worked his entire career at his family-owned business, Johnnys Lanes. He was the brains behind the machines. Keeping everything running smoothly. Michael was known for his unwavering dedication to his family, friends, and business.

A devoted fan of the New York Yankees and the New York Giants, Michael found joy in the highs and lows of his favorite teams, often sharing game days with loved ones. His love for sports was matched only by his commitment to hard work, a trait that defined his professional life and inspired those around him.

Michael could fix just about anything. This was a passion he shared with two very special people John-Michael and Mitchell Rhodes. Spending countless hours working on dirt bikes and cars with them.

Beyond his work ethic, Michael possessed a heart of gold and a spirited nature that brought warmth and laughter to every room he entered. His "fiery spirit" a term affectionately used by those close to him captured his playful demeanor and his ability to bring joy to all those around him. Often greeting friends and family with "What's up slippery!?"

Michael also had a profound love for dogs, especially his beloved companion, Bouche. Their bond was unbreakable, and the joy they shared was evident to all who knew them. We take comfort in knowing that they are now reunited, walking together once again.

Family was the cornerstone of Micheal's life. He is survived by his two children. Brandon Margreno of Watkins Glen, NY and Meeka Loiacono (Greg) of Rotterdam, NY. Brother Tony Margreno (Connie) and sister Mary Mortimer (Mort) both of Watkins Glen, NY. Half-Brother John Columio of Montour Falls, NY. Two grandchildren, Juliana Parks and Greyson Loiacono both of Rotterdam, NY. Nephew Michael Margreno (Jasmine) and niece Stephanie Carson (Andrew) both of Watkins Glen, NY. All who will continue to honor his legacy by embodying the values he held dear. His grandchildren brought him immense joy; their laughter and love were among his greatest treasures, and he cherished every moment spent with them.

A Celebration of Life or as Michael would say a "Hootenanny" will be held on May 17th at 2:00 pm at the Watkins Glen Elks Club. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Schuyler County Humane Society, reflecting Michael's generous spirit and commitment to helping others.

A very special thank you to the staff at Seneca View Skilled Nursing Facility and Dr Saks for all of their wonderful care and compassion during Michael's illness.

The Royce-Chedzoy Funeral Home is assisting the family.

LAWRENCE CHAPEL ADDED TO THE NATIONAL REGISTER FOR HISTORIC PLACES.

The Lawrence Chapel and Cemetery property in the Town of Catharine has been named to the National Register of Historic Places. The Schuyler County Historical Society owns and manages the site along Route 228 northeast of the Village of Odessa. The Chapel and cemetery join 20 other locations in the county listed on the Register. "Being the caretakers of this historic property is an honor," Society Board of Trustees President Barbara Chapman said. "The board, under the leadership of former president Jean Hubsch, had the foresight in late 2021 to take over the Chapel and cemetery from the Chemung County Historical Society. With this National Historic Register designation, our responsibility is affirmed. It's one we're very proud of." The public is invited to a celebration of the National Register listing on Saturday, May 10, from 10 a.m. to noon at the Chapel. Speakers will include Schuyler County Historian Dr. Gary Emerson. The non-denominational Chapel was built by the Lawrence family in 1880 to honor their ancestors and to give their neighbors a place to worship, celebrate and gather as a community. The Lawrences, originally from the New York City area, were significant in local, county and state matters. The adjacent cemetery was established nearly 50 years before construction started on the stone, Gothic Revival-style Chapel. "I think it's just marvelous," Town of Catharine Historian Carol Fagnan said about the historic designation, confirmed by the National Park Service in late January. State recognition was approved in September by New York Parks, Recreation & Historic Preservation. "Our early history is so fantastic. The Lawrences were so influential," Fagnan said. "It's a great recognition, a great protection and a great addition to the whole history of the Town of Catharine. It makes a place special." With the exception of only a handful of years, the Chapel has been used for church services, baptisms, weddings, funerals, musical performances and lectures since the first event there in July 1881. The Schuyler County Historical Society offers the Chapel for community use from May through October. "The Lawrence Chapel sits on a serene hill just above the road. Perfectly nestled among the trees, the location is elegant and calming," Society Executive Director of Museums Heather O'Grady-Evans said. "Newly restored interior walls make the acoustics inside the Chapel perfect for intimate vocal and instrumental concerts, renewal ceremonies and small weddings. "That the Chapel is now on the state and national registries adds to its mystique and historic charm. Each event held at the Lawrence Chapel becomes

Vasectomy is an effective contraception choice

20-minute surgery has few risks or side effects; prevents unwanted pregnancy

By Jason Cohen, MD and Melanie McNally, MD

Vasectomy is minor surgery to block sperm from reaching the semen that is ejaculated from the penis. During vasectomy, each vas deferens (the two tubes that move sperm from each testicle) are cut and sealed. After a vasectomy, the testicles still make sperm, but the body absorbs them. A vasectomy prevents pregnancy better than any other method of birth control, except abstinence. How is the procedure done? Vasectomy takes about 20 minutes, and most vasectomies done by Cayuga Urology are performed in the doctor's office. What should a patient expect after surgery? The surgical area will be numb for a few hours after a vasectomy. Mild discomfort or pain for the first few days is normal and should be treated with over-the-counter pain relievers. Wearing snug underwear or a jockstrap will help ease discomfort and support the area. What are the risks of vasectomy? About one to two percent of men may have ongoing pain or discomfort after a vasectomy. The pain is usually treated with anti-inflammatory drugs, like ibuprofen.

Jason Cohen, MD

Melanie McNally, MD

When can normal activities resume?

Most men with desk jobs return to work in one or two days and should avoid heavy lifting for a week. Men with more active jobs that include heavy lifting may need more time off.

Sex can resume as soon as a man and his partner are comfortable. However, even after a vasectomy, sperm can still be in the semen, making another form of contraception necessary to prevent an unintended pregnancy. After about three months, the man's semen is tested to determine if his sperm count is zero or there are less than 100,000 sperm and none are moving.

Drs. Cohen and McNally see patients at their office adjacent to Cayuga Medical Center. To make an appointment call (607) 319-5747

A vibrant poster for a 'Casino Night' event. The background is a collage of casino-related items: playing cards (10 of hearts, Jack of hearts, Queen of hearts, King of hearts, Ace of hearts), red dice, and a roulette wheel. A large, glowing yellow diamond shape with white dots around its border frames the central text. The text 'CASINO NIGHT' is written in large, bold, white and yellow letters. Above the diamond, the words 'WATKINS GLEN' and 'FIRE COMPANY' are written in green, slanted letters. Below the diamond, a list of prizes is shown in white and pink text, including 'SPORTSMAN RAFFLE', '20 - FIREARMS', 'DUCK CALL RAFFLE', 'DECK "O" CARDS', and 'CUSTOM RIFLE GIVEAWAY'. A small note says '7 additional given away at the event'. At the bottom, the date 'SATURDAY, MAY 3rd' is in large green letters, followed by the location 'AT WATKINS GLEN FIRE DEPT. - DOORS OPEN AT 6PM' and a list of activities: 'BLACK JACK, PULL TABS, BEAT THE DEALER, MONEY WHEEL, OVER - UNDER 7'. The bottom of the poster lists more prizes: '50/50 RAFFLE', 'DOOR PRIZES', 'FREE ADULT BEVERAGES', and 'HOT DOGS, HAMBURGERS'. A small logo 'Made with PosterMyWall.com' is in the bottom left corner.
