MARY (TICHENOR DAVIS) BERRY, Age 105, formerly of Watkins Glen. With deep sadness, our family announces the passing of Mary Tichenor Davis Berry, on October 20, 2026, ten days shy of her 106th birthday.

She was predeceased by her parents George and Ada Tichenor, her first husband Kenneth H. Davis, son Richard B. Davis, and her second husband James E. Berry, after 64 years of marriage, her daughter-in-law Carol Davis, twin brothers Gordon and Milton Tichenor, and sister Hilda Fordham.

Mary was raised on a farm in Hector NY; later moving to Watkins Glen. She was employed as a school bus driver, in retail, at Woodworth's Jewelry store, and many years at The Yankee Pedlar. Mary was involved in The American Legion Auxiliary for many years serving as their president at one point. Mary was a member of The Evening Belles' home dem group. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church for over 50 years. She was a prolific knitter with many people enjoying her gifts of hats, scarves, vests, and blankets. Mary was an accomplished artist with many of her paintings hanging in people's homes. She enjoyed 30 years wintering in Florida with her husband Jim. Mary was passionate about her friends, but most passionate about her family. She was a stay-at-home mom for many years, a great cook, and excellent baker. She was a wonderful grandma (Mimi), and a great-grandma (great Mimi).

Obituary

GLENNA ROSE VOORHEIS BERRY, formerly of Kellogg Rd Burdett, NY went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and her husband Ed Berry on October 22, 2026.

Glenna, the 15th child of Theresa Gray Swick Voorheis and William Edwin Voorheis, was born at home in Reynoldsville, NY. She had many careers in her 92 years. She worked at Cornell University as an administrative aid before joining her husband Ed as co owner of Berry's Garden Tractor Sales and Service. Her stay at home career path allowed her to devote time to her most cherished calling which was wife to Ed and mother to her four children. Her children came home most days to find fresh-baked cookies on the table and mom close by either in the house or working in her business office on the property. Glenna was a member of Reynoldsville United Methodist Church for over 60 years. She was a 4-H leader in her small community of Reynoldsville teaching young girls cooking, baking and sewing. She wrote several award-winning plays for the 4-H club Happy Helpers. She, along with her husband Ed, and the Happy Helpers built a float for the Village parade with Keri Palmer as the Happy Helper princess. It was a most memorable moment for all the girls.

Glenna always adapted to changing times. After their business was sold she worked at Watkins Glen High School and then at Shepard Niles Crane and Hoist Company where her father had worked when she was a child. You could always find her hosting her children and grandchildren for spontaneous dinners or Holiday celebrations with her delicious cooking and baking. She was the after school grandma for some of grandchildren affording them a special closeness.

Glenna was an avid gardner and loved to share her plants and gardening knowledge with family and friends. She loved pulling weeds, being outdoors, connecting with God through nature.

We will always treasure every memory of our beautiful, thoughtful, kind and loving mother.

She is survived by her 4 children, Rebecca Berry Damiani, (H Joe Arpino), Kimberly Berry Rowe(H Paul Rowe), Edward William Berry(W Selma Berry) and Jaqueline Berry Carrigan(H Fred Carrigan, along with her 10 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. She is predeceased by her parents and 14 siblings.

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE SERVICE FOR ED & GLENNA BERRY WILL BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 15TH 1:00 AT REYNOLDSVILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH.
All are welcome to join us.
We invite sharing and stories.
There will be a light lunch served in the dining hall of the church after the gathering.

PETS

MEET BIGGIE

Breed: Hound Mix
Sex: Neutered Male
Age: 3 Years
Size: Large

Such a sweet, lovable doofus! Although Biggie's owners adored him, circumstances were such that they were no longer able to care for him. Such a fitting name - he's a gentle giant who has no idea of his size. This fun-loving, happy go lucky guy loves everyone he meets, enjoys the company of other dogs, and although he hasn't had much experience around cats given his easy going demeanor he's likely to be good with cats too. He hasn't had a lot of experience with the whole leash walking thing, so that's kind of new to him, but he's getting the hang of it and is so willing to please.

And, those goofy ears! He always looks like he's dressed for a party! Everyone who meets Biggie immediately falls in love. You will too! Looking for a fabulous family dog or an adventure buddy? Biggie is your guy! Biggie is about three years old.

The adoption fee for adult dogs is $225. All have been spayed or neutered, vaccinated for rabies, kennel cough, DH(L)PP, have had a complete fecal analysis, treated for internal and external parasites, are heartworm tested and on heartworm preventative and flea and tick preventative and are microchipped. THE HUMANE SOCIETY OF SCHUYLER COUNTY, a 501c3 organization located in Montour Falls, released its 2026 community outreach statistics through October, citing the need for increased food donations during the giving season, especially as temperatures fall. In addition to pet adoption and critical shelter for homeless cats and dogs, the Humane Society provides free or low-cost veterinary care for the pets of income-eligible households, including spay/neuter, wellness checks, rabies and distemper vaccines, and flea treatment. Its pet pantry provides hundreds of pounds of supplemental pet food every month to income-eligible households. Between January and October 2026, the Humane Society provided low-cost spay/neuter procedures for 1,010 animals, free rabies vaccines to 206 animals (in partnership with Schuyler County Public Health), monthly pet food for 84 income-eligible Schuyler County households, and free wellness checks for the pets of 43 veterans and first responders in collaboration with Cornell University. HSSC's shelter, adoption, and community programs and services are nearly 100% donor supported. "Donations are an important way for our community to support our neighbors," stated Beth Fox, the Humane Society's Community Outreach Coordinator. "I can think of no better way to express the spirit of the giving season." There are always more homeless animals than available homes. "Our shelter and adoption services are in continuous demand, and feeding and caring for these animals requires significant resources," Georgie Taylor, the Humane Society of Schuyler County's Executive Director, pointed out. "This underscores why, whenever possible, pets belong at home with their loving families. Research shows that pets make an important contribution to human well-being. That's how community services like our pet pantry and wellness clinics add to our mission." Local businesses are pitching in to support shelter animals and community outreach. During November and December, pet food and other donations can be dropped off in Watkins Glen at the Watkins Glen Library, E.C. Cooper Insurance, and Chemung Canal Trust Company; in Montour Falls at Chemung Canal Trust; and in Odessa at the Dutton S. Peterson Memorial Library. A wish list for pet food is posted in all locations and on the Humane Society of Schuyler County Facebook page and website (https://schuylerhumane.org/hssc/pet-pantry/); donors can also contact Beth at bfox@schuylerhumane.org or 607-210-2600, ext. 204 to learn about which donations are in most demand. Businesses and individuals who want to financially sponsor a month of pet pantry are encouraged to contact bfox@schuylerhumane.org or call 607-210-2600, ext. 204); other options for giving can be found at: https://schuylerhumane.org/hssc/donations. For more information, please contact: Beth Fox Community Outreach Humane Society of Schuyler County bfox@schuylerhumane.org 607-210-2600, ext. 204

THE LAKE COUNTRY PLAYERS PRESENT "ONCE UPON A MATTRESS." A hilarious fairy-tale adventure is coming to the Watkins Glen High School Auditorium November 5th – 7th @ 7pm and November 8th @ 2pm. Forget everything you thought you knew about fairy tales! Lake Country Players invites audiences to step into a kingdom full of laughs, lively music, royal shenanigans, and a very unusual princess in the delightful musical comedy Once Upon a Mattress! Directed by Melissa Norton, with music direction by Kim Laursen, this beloved Broadway musical puts a hilarious twist on the classic tale of The Princess and the Pea. With quirky characters, catchy songs, and plenty of unexpected surprises, this production promises an entertaining experience for the whole family. Leading the royal festivities are Anna-Beth Wheaton & Tania Mazariego, sharing the role of Princess Winnifred; Nicole Laszlo and Pam Kelly, sharing the role of Queen Aggravain; Mark Sardo as King Sextimus the Silent; and Brendon Wendling as Prince Dauntless the Drab. They are joined by a talented group of supporting actors and an ensemble who all bring this wonderfully wacky kingdom to life. Will Princess Winnifred win the prince's heart? Will the queen's plans be foiled? And will anyone ever get a good night's sleep? Come find out as Lake Country Players brings this charming, laugh-out-loud musical to the stage! Tickets are purchased at the door with payments of cash or check only with sales starting 45 minutes before showtime.
